

BH Shopping has international attraction in August

The Uruguayan saxophonist Emiliano Garcías will perform at the Happy Hour Musical

The month of August is coming, and B H Shopping's Happy Hour Musical takes an international turn. Renowned saxophonist Emiliano García, who has performed in Argentina, Spain, and Uruguay, will play on Thursdays and Fridays at the gourmet food court on the Nova Lima floor (2nd floor), from 7:30 pm to 9:30 pm.

The presentations will be a duo of the Uruguayan saxophonist alongside the pianist and coordinator of the Happy Hour Musical project, Dr. Handel Cecilio. The repertoire with bossa nova rhythms, national and international pop songs, and movie themes from various eras.

According to BH Shopping's Marketing Manager, Renato Tavares, García's presence expands the Happy Hour Musical's horizons: "For the first time we have the participation of a foreign artist, which proves that the event is getting better and better and opening opportunities for musicians from other nationalities", he says.
